Canon Carroll Scholarship 2017

Terms & Conditions

Thomastown Credit Union Ltd, like all credit unions is committed to serving our members. The aim of this programme is to give financial assistance to students who are members of Thomastown Credit Union Ltd and who are going into higher education.

The following Terms & Conditions apply to the Canon Carroll Scholarship:-

1. All applicants must be members of Thomastown Credit Union with a minimum loan of €1,000.
2. Applicants must be 16 years of age or older.
3. Applicants under the age of 18 must get their parent/legal guardian to sign the application form.
4. Only one application per member is permitted.
5. Application forms must be completed in full or may result in the application becoming null and void.
6. The applicants must be completing a Certificate, Diploma, Degree or Masters at a recognised third level institution.
7. The Scholarships are for full-time courses only.
8. Proof of acceptance onto the applicants chosen course must be provided with the application form. It is the responsibility of the applicant to provide this.
9. There will be up to five Scholarships available. The closing date for application forms to be returned is Friday, 13th October 2017, no later than 9pm.
10. Photo ID & proof of address of the applicant must be attached to this application.
11. By completing the application form, the applicants agree to allow the credit union to take photographs of them for publicity purposes. The winners of the scholarship must be available for photographs and collection of their cheque on a date specified by the Credit Union. If you do not attend, you will automatically forfeit your scholarship.
12. All application forms will be checked before they are entered into the draw to ensure that they have been filled out correctly.
13. The winning applicants will be picked at random from the total eligible entries received. Decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into. Successful applicants will be notified by post following the draw.
